

FORTINET LICENSE ACTIVATION PROCEDURE

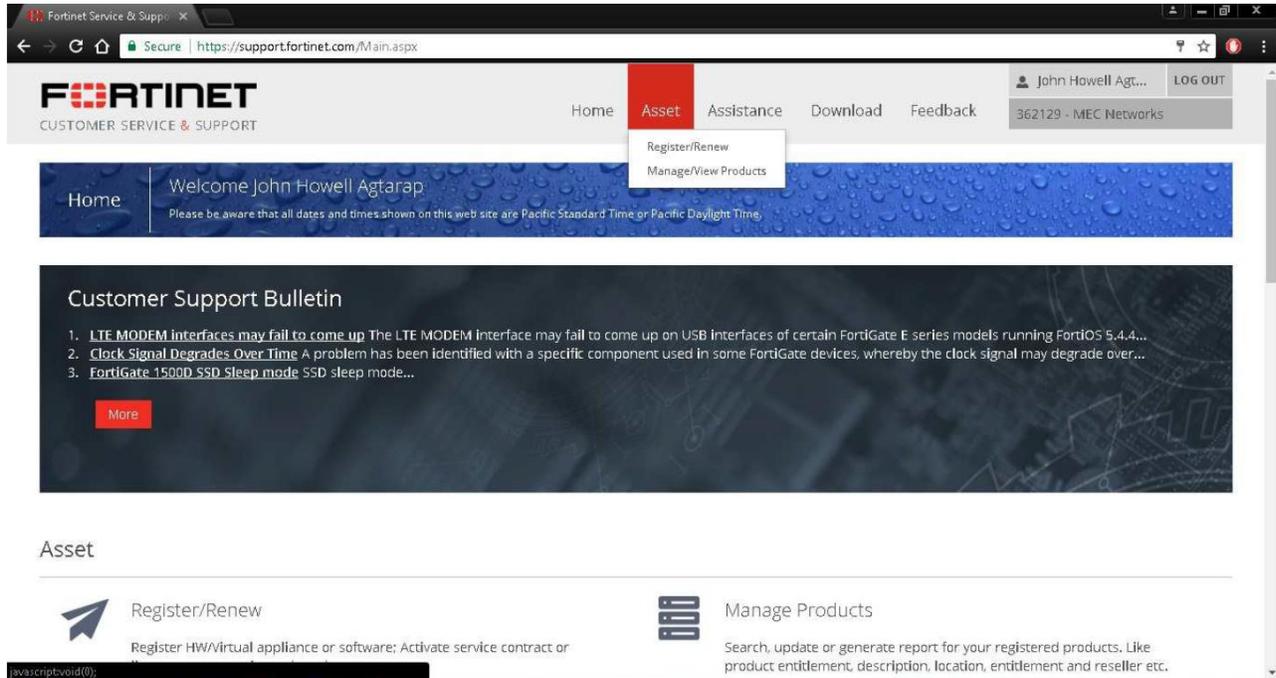

Create an account on <https://support.fortinet.com>

1. Pleaser register your Fortinet appliance first.
2. Enter your e-mail and password.

The screenshot shows the Fortinet Support website interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with links for Home, Programs, Resources, FortiGuard, and Feedback. Below this is a header section with the Fortinet logo and the text 'CUSTOMER SERVICE & SUPPORT'. The main content area features a large image of a smiling woman wearing a headset, with the text 'Welcome to Fortinet Support' overlaid. To the right of this image is a login and sign-up form. The form has three tabs: 'LOG IN', 'SIGN UP', and 'CONTACT SUPPORT'. The 'LOG IN' tab is selected. The form fields include 'Account ID/Email:' with the value 'jh.agtarap@mec.ph', 'Forgot Your Account ID/Email?', 'Password:' with a masked password, and 'Forgot Your Password?'. There is a 'Log In' button. Below the form, there is a note: 'Distributors and Resellers can access technical support via the Partner Portal for priority processing. Click here.' Below the main content area is a 'Resources' section with three icons and links: 'Knowledge Base', 'Fortinet Document Library', and 'Training & Certification'.

3. Go to Asset tab

The screenshot shows the Fortinet Support website interface. The browser address bar displays `https://support.fortinet.com/Main.aspx`. The navigation menu includes Home, Asset (highlighted in red), Assistance, Download, and Feedback. A user profile for John Howell Agtarap is visible in the top right corner with a LOG OUT button. A dropdown menu under the Asset tab shows options for Register/Renew and Manage/View Products. The main content area features a welcome message for John Howell Agtarap and a Customer Support Bulletin with three items:

- 1. LTE MODEM interfaces may fail to come up The LTE MODEM interface may fail to come up on USB interfaces of certain FortiGate E series models running FortiOS 5.4.4...
- 2. Clock Signal Degrades Over Time A problem has been identified with a specific component used in some FortiGate devices, whereby the clock signal may degrade over...
- 3. FortiGate 1500D SSD Sleep mode SSD sleep mode...

A red 'More' button is located below the bulletin items. Below the main content, the 'Asset' section is visible, containing two main options:

- Register/Renew: Register HW/Virtual appliance or software; Activate service contract or
- Manage Products: Search, update or generate report for your registered products. Like product entitlement, description, location, entitlement and reseller etc.

A small error message `javascript:void(0);` is visible at the bottom left of the Asset section.

4. Then select Register/Renew.

5. Look for the registered SERIAL NUMBER in your Fortinet Appliance

The image shows a screenshot of the Fortinet registration wizard on a web browser. The browser address bar shows the URL: <https://support.fortinet.com/product/RegistrationEntry.aspx>. The page title is "Registration Wizard" and the current step is "Registering Product". The wizard has four steps: 1. Registration Code, 2. End User Type, 3. License Agreement, and 4. Review. The "Registration Code" step is active, and the instruction says: "Please enter your product serial number, service contract registration code or license certificate number to start the registration:". A red box highlights the text "product serial number" in the instruction. Below the instruction is an empty text input field. The "End User Type" section is also visible, with two radio button options: "The product will be used by a government user" and "The product will be used by a non-government user". A "Next" button is located below the "End User Type" section. At the bottom of the screenshot, there are three navigation tabs: "Corporate", "How to Buy", and "Products".

The photograph on the right shows the back of a Fortigate-92D appliance. The label contains the following information:
